HARRY E. ROWE GLYNN NATIVE DIES MONDAY

Harry Edwin Rowe 60, of Florence, S.C., died at his residence early Monday after an extended illness.

He was a native of Glynn County and had been a resident of Florence for the past 12 years. He was the former owner and operator of the Western Sizzling Steak House in Florence.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the chapel of Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home with Edward S. Williams officiating. Interment will follow in the Davis Cemetery near Brunswick.

He is survived by his wife, Josephine Edgy Rowe of Florence; a daughter, Brenda R. Altman of Florence; a son, William M. (Eddie) Rowe of Greenville, S.C.; three brothers, PM. Rowe of Louisville, Ky., L.V. Rowe of San Jose, Calif., and James Rowe of Brunswick, four grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Active pallbearers will be Dan Myers, Harry Myers, Terry Davis, Johnny Davis, Micheal McElveen and Larry Wilson.

The family will be at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Davis, Rt. 1, Waycross Highway and will receive friends at the funeral home from 7-9 o'clock tonight. The family requests those wishing to make memorial contributions to make them to the American Cancer Society.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
