

Anna Scrivens

The Brunswick News; Saturday 27 December 1997; pg. 3A col. 4

ANNA L. SCRIVENS SERVICE MONDAY

The funeral for Anna Louise Scrivens, 46, will be 1 p.m. Monday at Emanuel Baptist Church on St. Simons Island with the Rev. R.J. Leggett officiating. Burial will follow in Memory Gardens.

She died Dec. 24.

Pallbearers will be Herbert Scrivens Jr., Ernest Scrivens, Willie James Scrivens, David Stanley Scrivens and Kenneth Scrivens. Honorary pallbearers will be officers of the church.

The body will be placed in the church one hour before service.

Surviving are her mother, Ruby Mae Scrivens; three daughters, Yvette Scrivens, Sharon E. Collins and Jeanette Scrivens, all of Brunswick; five brothers, Herbert Scrivens, Jr., Ernest Scrivens, Willie James Scrivens and Kenneth Scrivens, all of Brunswick, and David Scrivens of Fayetteville, N.C.; four sisters, Sabrina Young, Alalia Dunson, Loretta Tyson and Juanita Carter, all of Brunswick; her grandmother, Rosa Jones of St. Simons; eight grandchildren and several other relatives.

The Glynn County native was a homemaker and a member of Emanuel Baptist Church of St. Simons.

Hall, Jones and Brown Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.