MRS. BORCHARDT, 80, SUCCUMBS

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie G. Borchardt, 80, who died Saturday, were held yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home. Rabbi Milton Greenwald officiated.

The body was taken to Jacksonville for cremation. The ashes will be returned here for interment in the family plot in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. Borchardt was the widow of the late Joseph Borchardt and had lived in Brunswick for the past 40 years, coming here from Chicago. She was a member of Temple Beth Tefilloh. She had been in ill health for sometime.

She was survived by several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. A.N. Shelander, Albert Fendig, Edwin Fendig and Raphael Borchardt.
