

Cornelius Calnan

The Brunswick News; Saturday 11 November 1933; pg. 8 col. 5

AN AGED RESIDENT DIES HERE TODAY

Cornelius W. Calnan, 82 years of age, for more than 50 years a resident of Brunswick, died at his home on Richmond street this afternoon. The aged resident had been ill for many weeks, and for the past several days he has been lingering between life and death.

Born in Westfield, Mass., Mr. Calnan removed to Brunswick when a young man and has spent the remainder of his life here. For many years he was a contractor, and was once connected with the public works department of the city. For the past ten years, however, because of his bad health, he has not been active in business.

The deceased is survived by two sisters, who reside in Westfield, and a number of other relatives, some of whom reside here. Other relatives are Mrs. A.V. Wood, a niece, Julian and Raymond Torras, nephews, and C.T. Calnan, a cousin.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Xavier's Catholic church, conducted by Father Reilly. Mortician J.D. Baldwin is in charge of the funeral. Interment will be in Palmetto cemetery.

Published: 11/11/1933