

George Calvin

The Brunswick Call; Wednesday 23 August 1899; pg. 1 col. 5

G.W. CALVIN DEAD -- He Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon-A Long Sufferer

After an illness of many months, Mr. Geo. W. Calvin died at the residence of Mr. G.A.H. Jennings, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The deceased has been a sufferer for weeks and weeks. Everything in medical science has been resorted to, but all in vain, and yesterday, just as the sun was bidding au revoir to the earth, this soul returned to the God from whence it came.

Mr. Calvin has been a resident of Brunswick for years and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

He leaves two daughters -- Misses Nellie and Leola-and one son, Master Teddie, to mourn his loss.

The funeral will occur at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon from St. Mark's Episcopal church, Rev. H.E. Lucas officiating.

The following gentlemen will act as pall bearers: H.S. Lee, W.S. Lang, C.W. Floyd, W.H. DeVoe, D.J. Gill, John Campbell.

Visiting relatives from Augusta and other cities will reach the city this morning.

THE CALL tenders its sympathy to the members of the family.

Published: 8/23/1899