AN OLD RESIDENT DIED LAST NIGHT

Miss Katie Curry, 75, who, it is stated, was born and had spent her entire life in Brunswick, died last night at her home near the plant of the Hercules Powder Company. She had been ill for some time.

Miss Curry had no immediate relatives.

Funeral services will be held at the chapel of Mortician Edo Miller Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. John Sharp. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery, where the mother and father of Miss Curry are buried.
