

Annie Dart

The Brunswick News; Friday 26 December 1958; pg. 12 col. 5

MRS. CLAUDE DART DIED WEDNESDAY; FUNERAL TODAY

Mrs. Annie Curry Dart, widow of the late Judge Claude Dart, who died a month ago, passed away at the Brunswick hospital Wednesday night. She had been ill for more than a year.

Mrs. Dart was born March 30, 1880, and she came to Brunswick from Climax in 1905 to become a teacher at the old Purvis School, and she had been a local resident since that time.

She was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church, having taught Sunday school class in that church for many years.

Mrs. Dart is survived by three children, Mrs. Russell B. Henderson of this city, Linwood Dart of Tallahassee, Fla., and Horace Dart of Jacksonville, Fla., and five grandchildren. She is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. J.W. Brice, Misses Sallie Mae and Clyde Curry, of Jacksonville, and a brother, C.A. Curry, of Cairo.

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. R.L. McBath. Pallbearers were Bob Dart Brown, Robert Dart, Eddie Abel, Jr., H.R. Symons, Ray Symons and John F. Symons, Jr. The Gibson-Hart Funeral Home was in charge of the funeral.

Published: 12/26/1958