

Sarah Dart

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 26 April 1884; pg. 6 col. 5

DIED-On the 20th inst. Sarah Ethel, aged fifteen months, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Dart, of this city. The little one was taken Sunday morning of congestion of the stomach and bowels, and died the same evening. The little flower has been transplanted in the garden above, where, freed from the chilling winds, it can bloom forever. Let this thought soothe the bleeding hearts of the stricken parents.
