

Charles Day

The Brunswick Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 30 May 1885; pg. 3 col. 1

DEATH OF MR. CHARLES DAY

Mr. Chas. Day died at the home of his son, Mr. H.C. Day, of this city, on Thursday night last. Mr. Day was well known, both in Macon, his former home, and elsewhere, being for years one of the active cotton merchants of Georgia. If we mistake not he owned the first steamer that run the Ocmulgee. For many months past his failing strength gave evidence that he would last but a little while longer, so his death was not unlooked for. His funeral [sic] took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from Episcopal church.