CARGYLE ELLIOT, NATIVE RESIDENT, DIED LAST NIGHT

Cargyle E. Elliot, well known Brunswick resident, born and reared here, passed away shortly before midnight last night in Jones Hospital in Milledgeville, where he had been for treatment for several weeks. His condition had been critical for the past several days. He had been ill for sometime.

Mr. Elliot was born in Brunswick March 16, 1885, and had spent his entire life in this city, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Elliot, prominent Brunswick residents. For 30 years he was associated with the old Downing Company, and more recently he was employed at the toll house on the Brunswick-St. Simons Highway. He had been a life-long member of St. Marks Episcopal church. Mr. Elliot was known by a large number of local friends who will be grieved to learn of his death.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Ralph McCrary and Mrs. Maud Boyd, of this city, and Mrs. J.M. Heald, of Lakeland, Fla., and one brother, Monroe B. Elliot of Columbus.

Funeral services will be held at the family home, 1106 Richmond street, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, is to be conducted by the Rev. Talbert Morgan, of St. Marks church. Burial will be in the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery. The following will serve as pallbearers: Nat Nightingale, F.J. Torras, Sam L. Mallard, J.B. Sinkhorn, W.H. Berrie, L.J. Leavy, F.H. Waters and Dr. L.C. Mitchell. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Mortician Edo Miller.
