

Algenora Farmer

The Brunswick News; Saturday 25 December 1909; pg. 1 col. 3

DEATH OF MRS. NORA FARMER

Passed Away Yester Afternoon After a Long illness

Mrs. Nora Farmer, wife of the late Capt. Robt. Farmer, passed away at her home on Ellis street at 5:45 yesterday afternoon after a long and lingering illness, covering a period of several months, during which everything possible has been done for her, but to no avail, and for the past several weeks she has been gradually growing weaker, and for the past two or three days death has been momentarily expected.

Mrs. Farmer was 55 years of age and she has resided in Brunswick all of her life. She was the daughter of the late Capt. J.W. Clubb, who during his time, was one of Brunswick's best known citizens. The deceased is survived by four children, R.L. Robert?, and Derwood Farmer, and one daughter, Miss Janie Farmer. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. U.M. Farmer, Mrs. C.B. Irvine and Mrs. Nina? Welsh, Mrs. Julia Gorato, and one brother, Mr. James Clubb, besides a large number of other relatives.

The death of Mrs. Farmer removed a woman who was loved by all who knew her and her death is a great shock to her family. She was lovable and kind and charitable and The News join the many other friends in extreme sympathy.

The funeral will occur Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from the McKendree Methodist church, Rev. M.C. Austin officiating. The interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 12/25/1909