MRS. J.P. HARVEY DIED IN DOUGLAS; IS BURIED HERE

Mrs. John P. Harvey, for many years a resident of Brunswick, passed away in Douglas yesterday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T.B. Stanford, with whom she was residing. Mrs. Harvey had been ill for some time.

The remains were forwarded to this city for interment and the funeral was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J.A. McLardie [sic], 1421 Union street, Rev. W.P. Blevins and Rev. T.F. Drake conducting the services. The interment was in Oak Grove cemetery, where her husband, the late J.P. Harvey, was buried a number of years ago.

Mrs. Harvey spent all of her early years in Brunswick, and resided here for some time following the death of her husband, when she made her home with her daughter. She had a large circle of friends here among the older residents.
