

Mary Holmes

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 3 July 1880; pg. 2 cols. 3-4

ST. SIMONS DEPARTMENT -- On Friday afternoon, the 25th ult. Mrs. Holmes, wife of Mr. Henry Holmes, was taken suddenly ill, falling from her chair whilst sitting in the front porch. Medical aid was at once sought. She still lies in quite a critical condition, her left side entirely paralyzed [sic]. Mrs. H. has been, for years, a great sufferer, having been tapped, during the last four years, seventeen times, for dropsy. During these various tapplings, there have been, at least, thirty or forty gallons of water taken from her.
