

James Lambright

The Brunswick Call; Saturday 5 August 1899; pg. 4 col. 2

JUDGE J.E. LAMBRIGHT DEAD-He Passed Away at 11 O'clock Last Night.

After a lingering illness of several months Judge James E. Lambright died at eleven o'clock last night at his residence in the southern portion of the city.

Judge Lambright was 76 years of age and has resided in Brunswick for many years where he is well known and universally esteemed.

For years he was justice of the peace in this district, and up to a few years ago was among the most prominent business men of the city.

He leaves a large family, all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, Rev. W.M. Gilmore officiating.
