MRS. JULIA LAMBRIGHT LAID TO REST IN OAK GROVE CEMETERY

Many sorrowing friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Lambright, 1020 Richmond street, yesterday afternoon to pay their tribute of esteem and love to Mrs. Julia Dart Lambright, who passed away Friday morning after a lingering illness.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Thomas H. Thomson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of which the deceased was a devoted member. A profusion of winter's fairest flowers covered the casket, tokens of the affection in which Mrs. Julia Lambright was held in the hearts of her friends. Her death though not unexpected, was the occasion of the deepest sorrow in every circle of Brunswick, where she was known and held in the highest affection. It was here that she spent almost her entire life and it was here that she labored and loved.

At the conclusion of the services at the home, the body was conveyed to Oak Grove, where, as the sun went down, all that was mortal of this lovable woman was laid to its eternal rest by the side of her loved ones, gone before. The pallbearers were Edwin Dart, J.M. Lambright, S.T. Goodyear, M.E. Dart, Claude Dart, and John F. Symons.
