MRS. A.H. LEAVY PASSES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Arthur H. Leavy died Friday night at 11 o'clock at her home on Union street after a long illness. Mrs. Leavy, who was 49 years old, has been almost an invalid for the past several years, her health beginning to decline following the death of her son. Everything possible was done for her relief, but her illness was such that her condition did not respond to treatment. She gradually grew weaker, until death came peacefully, bringing to an end earthly suffering for this beloved woman. Until her health failed, Mrs. Leavy was active and alert, and will be greatly missed, not only by her family and relatives, but a wide circle of friends.

The deceased is survived by her husband, A.H. Leavy, member of The Brunswick News staff, and one son, A.H. Leavy, Jr., two grandchildren, also four brothers and one sister, and numerous other relatives.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home, 1309 Union street, conducted by Rev. Royal K. Tucker, pastor of St. Marks Episcopal church. A quartette composed of Mrs. Goulding Stacy, Miss Evelyn Tomberlin, J.L. Andrews and A.C. Knight sweetly sang "Asleep in Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee."

The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Judge D.W. Krauss, R.S. Pyles, W.L. Harwell, L.W. Beach, Judge Edwin W. Dart, and A.O. Anderson.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery, the funeral being in charge of Edo Miller.

Many beautiful floral offerings and the presence of many friends at the funeral attested the love and esteem in which Mrs. Leavy was held in the city in which she had lived all her life.
