

Robert Littlefield

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 2 December 1882; pg. 6 col. 5

SAD ACCIDENT-On Wednesday afternoon last Robbie Littlefield, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S.C. Littlefield, was found lying in water about one foot deep near the express office on the bay. He had been seen only a short while before in his usual health. Being subject to fits, the presumption is that he was suddenly attacked with one of these and fell into the water and was drowned before he could recover. Robbie was a young man of exemplary habits and well beloved by all his comrades. His parents and relations have the sympathy of the whole community in this sad bereavement.
