ALEX PETERS, AN OLD RESIDENT OF CITY, DIED TODAY

Alex Peters, 69 years of age, well known resident of Brunswick, passed away at the City hospital this afternoon at 2:10 o'clock, following a long illness. Mr. Peters had been ill at the home of his brother, R.W. Peters, on Union street, for some time, and was yesterday removed to the hospital. His condition was serious and no hope was held out for his recovery.

The deceased has been a resident of Brunswick all of his life. For years he was engaged in the grocery business in the city, and more recently was city jailer, from which position he retired some time ago because of his health. He was well known and popular throughout the city, and was known and esteemed by an unusually large circle of friends.

Mr. Peters is survived by two brothers, R.W. Peters, of this city, Wadwill Peters, of Savannah, who was called to the city yesterday by his brother's illness. Funeral arrangements had not been completed this afternoon, but it was stated that it would be held from St. Mark's Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.
