

Charles Russell

The Brunswick News; Wednesday 6 November 1912; pg. 1 col. 5

Captain Charles Anson Russell died yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Duncan Wright, after an illness of ten days. His death had been expected for several days as he had been critically ill for a week or more and had been sinking rapidly since Sunday. Captain Russell was an old and valued resident, having lived in Brunswick since 1867, and been one of its best citizen[s]. He was born in Deerfield, Mass., in 1828, and was 84 years of age. He was the oldest pilot on the Brunswick bar.

Captain Russell was a large property owner in the city, and was noted for his strict honesty and integrity of character and his genial nature, and his death will be mourned by a host of friends.

Besides his two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Walker of Tampa, and Mrs. Duncan Wright of this city, Captain Russell leaves three grandchildren, Hazel Wright, Dorothy and Lillian Walker, and a sister in Bridgeport, Conn.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence. The Masons will officiate. The sympathy of their many friends is with the family in their bereavement.
