

Fanny Schaltter

Advertiser & Appeal; Vol. 2, No. 10; Wednesday 7 June 1876; pg. 1, col. 3

Death of Mrs. Schlatter

On Friday morning last (June 2, 1876), our citizens were startled with the sad announcement that Mrs. Fannie C. Schlatter, wife of Col. Charles Schlatter, of this city, had died suddenly during the night. It appears she retired as well as usual on Thursday night, but awoke at an early hour the next morning, feeling ill, and summoned her youngest daughter (the only other member of the family at home); but before either physician or friends could be gotten, she gently passed away.

We extend to the bereaved family our warmest sympathy, in this the hour of their affliction.

Published: 6/07/1876