JEWEL H. SIMMONS DIES EARLY TODAY

Jewel Hays Simmons, 88, of Brunswick died early today at her residence.

A graveside service will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Oak Grove Cemetery with the Revs. Carroll Crosby and Emory Willard officiating.

The family will receive friends at 924 Union St. Sunday and requests memorials to the First United Methodist Church of Brunswick.

Surviving are two sons, John W. Simmons III and Bill Simmons, both of Brunswick; two daughters, Peggy S. Howell of Brunswick and Beverly S. Davis of McGehee, Ark.; a sister, Elsie Piper of Atlanta; 14 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The Monticello native had lived in Glynn County for 66 years. She was retired from civil service, having worked at NAS Glynco.

Mrs. Simmons was past president and lifetime member of the Brunswick Pilot Club and was a hospital auxiliary worker at Southeast Georgia Regional Medical Center for many years. She was a member of First United Methodist Church of Brunswick.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
