

Infant Of Smith

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 9 June 1883; pg. 6 col. 4

Our deepest sympathy was aroused on Tuesday last as we stood by the open grave of the little infant of Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Smith, and as we laid the little one to rest, we could but think how much of the father's pride and the mother's joy was being buried there. We know "it is well with the child," but oh! how loth [sic] we are to give up the little cherubs that so entwine themselves around our heart-strings. But God knows what is best.
