MRS. MARY STACY DIED SUDDENLY LATE YESTERDAY

Mrs. Mary Lavender [sic] Stacy, prominent and well known Brunswick woman, who had made her home in this city for many years, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R.A. Gould, on Gloucester street.

Mrs. Stacy had not been confined to her bed and was believed to be enjoying fairly good health, when she suffered a heart attack while seated on the front porch of the home. She died within a few minutes.

Mrs. Stacy was born at Flemington in Liberty county, November 10, 1862. She was married to the late Palmer G. Stacy on May 5, 1885, both being members of well known and prominent south Georgia families. They removed to Brunswick shortly after their marriage and resided here the remainder of their lives.

Mrs. Stacy during her long residence here had been active in church and other circles. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the W.C.T.U. and the Midway Society, and she had been a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. She had not only lived a beautiful Christian life, but had always been most active in church affairs. In past years she took an active interest in the various organizations of which she had so long been associated. She was widely known here and throughout this section, and news of her death will cause sorrow among many friends who had known and loved her for years.

Besides Mrs. Gould, she is survived by one other daughter, Mrs. Fred E. Decker, of Watertown, N.Y., who is en route to attend the funeral, and two sons, Goulding J. Stacy and Palmer Stacy, both of this city. A number of other relatives also survive.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, to be conducted by the Rev. J.W. Harnsberger, and burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The following will serve as pallbearers:

Active, Norman A. Way, A.M. Harris, Wm. McDonald, Potter F. Gould, Julia Bennet, Robert Tait; honorary, A.M. Way, J.L. Andrews, C.H. Sheldon, Edwin W. Dart, Claude Dart, B.R. Young, O. Vogel, R.W.
