MRS. L.C. TABBOT [sic] DIES IN FLORIDA

Mrs. Louise Cooper Tabbott, 84, widow of the late Capt. J.W. Tabbott, for many years a pilot on the Brunswick bar, died at 11 o'clock today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A.G. Traylor, in Jacksonville. She had been making her home with her daughter for the past few years.

Mrs. Tabbott suffered a stroke of paralysis on Monday night and had since been in a serious condition. She was born and reared in Brunswick and spent her entire life here up to the time she removed to Jacksonville. She was a devout Christian woman and for years was a member of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Tabbott resided for years at the Tabbott home here, 601 Union street.

She is survived by five children, Capt. E.S. Tabbott and Mrs. L.K. Anderson, of this city; Arthur Tabbott, New York; Mrs. C.B. Jones, Atlantic Beach, Fla., and Mrs. A.C. Traylor, Jacksonville. Several grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. Mortician Edo Miller left for Jacksonville this morning for the body.
