MISS BLANCHE TAIT

Miss Blanche Tait, a native of Brunswick, died Sunday morning in a Milledgeville hospital. She had been residing in that city for the past 25 years, where she was a professor of biology at Georgia State College for Women.

Miss Tait, who spent her early life here, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Tait, for years well known local residents. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Edwin Allen of Milledgeville, and a brother, William Lacy Tait, Winter Haven, Fla., and several nieces and nephews there being some local cousins among the survivors.

Miss Tait was born here and taught in the local public schools before moving to Milledgeville. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services will be held in Brunswick Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. C. Logan Landrum officiating, burial to be in the family plot at Oak Grove Cemetery. Pallbearers will be I.M. Aiken, Edwin Sherman, Judge Frank M. Scarlett, Norman A. Way, L. Julian Bennet, C.K. Curry, A.M. Harris, and Dr. Donald Mahon, dean of instruction at the Milledgeville college. The Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
