

Charles Van gilder

The Brunswick News; Wednesday 18 December 1946; pg. 8 col. 3

CHAS. VAN GILDER DIES SUDDENLY HERE EARLY TODAY

Charles Pruden Van Gilder, 50, who arrived here a few days ago with Mrs. Van Gilder to spend the holidays with the latter's sister, Mrs. Katherine Hayes, and her uncle, H.F. du Bignon, died unexpectedly early today at the residence of Mr. du Bignon, 716 Union street. His death was attributed to a heart attack.

While Mr. Van Gilder had never made his home in Brunswick, he had frequently visited this city, and was well known among a large number of friends who were shocked to learn of his death.

Mr. Van Gilder, a mining engineer had for years been associated with the Brown & Root Company of Houston, Texas, and he had made his home in that city in recent years. However, he had traveled over a wide area as a representative of that company, having been stationed in a number of cities. He was born in Easton, Pa.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Stiles Van Gilder, and one sister, Mrs. Whitmore Brown, of New York.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed pending the arrival of Mrs. Brown. However, services will be held here and burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery, the following to serve as pallbearers: John Howard of Savannah, John Stiles, Wright and Eddie Parker, Henry Cate and Frank Vogel. Arrangements are in charge of Mortician Edo Miller.

The Brunswick News; Thursday 19 December 1946; pg. 8 col. 5

FUNERAL FRIDAY

Funeral services for Charles P. Van Gilder, who died suddenly yesterday, will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of H.F. du Bignon, 716 Union street, to be conducted by the Rev. Brooks H. Wester, chaplain of the local post of the American Legion. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 12/18/1946