

Sadie Joiner

The Brunswick News; Saturday 17 January 2009; pg. 4A col. 2

Sadie Mae Teston Joiner, 81, of Brunswick went to heaven to be with her Lord on Friday, Jan. 16, 2009.

Mrs. Joiner worked as a welder building Liberty Ships during World War II. She retired from the Glynn County Tax Commissioners office, where she worked as a tax clerk and was a past member of Taylor's United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dewey and Cora Teston; a sister, Ruth Lovin; and a grandson, Matthew.

She is survived by her loving family, two sons, Paul Joiner (wife Phyllis) of Brunswick and Herby Joiner (wife, Cheri) of Cairo; four grandchildren, Jennifer, Clint, Chris and Sarah; two great-grandchildren, Michael and David; two sisters, Lois Cox and Linda Teston; and a brother, Archie Teston.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. today at Taylor's United Methodist Church with the Rev. Ron Register officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Dennis Cox, Johnny Dills, Clay Harrison, Teddy Harrison, Wayne Lovin, Glynn Teston and Tony Teston.

Honorary pallbearers will be the doctors and staff of Coastal Cardiology, Dr. Limburg, Dr. Clay, Dr. Ashley Register and staff, the nurses and staff of five central and the respiratory staff of the Brunswick hospital of the Southeast Georgia Health System.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.