

James Crews

The Charlton County Herald; Monday 8 February 2010; online article

James Michael Crews, 54, of Waycross died February 3, 2010 at his residence.

Born in Folkston, his parents are Juanita Vinson Crews and the late Jesse Andrews Crews, Sr. He is also preceded in death by his daughter, Melissa Crews Hickox.

He was a truck driver and served in the U.S. Army. Also Michael attended the First Baptist Church in Folkston, was a member of the American Vets and loved fishing and spending time with his family.

He is survived by three children and their spouses, Mikey and Janice Crews of Waynesville, J.O. and Amanda Johnson and Johnny and Christy Johnson of Waycross; 10 grandchildren, Makayla Crews, Christian Crews, Melessa Crews, Cheyanne Johnson, Heaven Johnson, Destiny Johnson, Jaden Johnson, John Johnson, Jamielee Johnson and Jolie Johnson; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Jesse and Joan Crews, Jr. of St. George, and Wallace and Phyllis Crews of Citronelle, AL; his mother, Juanita V. Crews of Waynesville; also several nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Visitation was held February 6, at Frye Funeral Home, Nahunta.

Funeral service were held February 7 at Atkinson Baptist Church with Rev. Gene McCullough, Rev. Randy Jacoby and Rev. Claud Goble officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were: J.O. Johnson, Bo Johns, D.J. Johns, Jok Johns, Randy Kirkland and Joe Shiver.