

James Wellman

The Brunswick News; Thursday 14 October 2004; pg. 4A col. 3

James Wesley Wellman, 97, died Oct. 8 at his residence.

A native of Camden County, Mr. Wellman was a retired landscape gardener. He was a member of First African Baptist Church where he served as chairman of the deacon board. He was a member of Mt. Olive Lodge No. 228.

The funeral will be at 11 a.m. Friday at First African Baptist, Fancy Bluff, with the Revs. M.C. Denegal and T.L. Benton officiating.

Interment will be in the First African Baptist Churchyard Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Otha Fuller, Craig Jackson, Carl Muchison, Marshall Muchison, Michael Muchison, Ronald Muchison, Charles Perkins, Bruce Smith, Rene Wellman, Rodney Wellman and Terrance Wellman.

Honorary pallbearers will be deacons of First African Baptists Church and members of Mt. Olive Lodge No. 228, PHA F. & A.M.

Mr. Wellman's body will be placed in the church one hour prior to service.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. today in the Prudence Hall Chapel at Hall, Jones and Brown Funeral Home.

Survivors include one son, Thomas J. Wellman of Brunswick; four daughters, Ethel S. Bryant of Jacksonville, Naomi Muchison of Brunswick; Dorcas W. Everrett of Neptune, N.J., and Rose W. Poole of Scaford, Del.; two sisters, Estelle Mells of Miami and Lillie Watts of Hortense; 12 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Source: The Brunswick News

Published: 10/14/2004