

Allen Blash

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 25 August 2009

Vincent R. Drummer Funeral Home, Vidalia, announces the death of Allen Lamar Blash Jr., born Jan. 7, 1985, in Brunswick Allen was educated in the Glynn County School System; he was a 2003 graduate of Brunswick High School. Allen was fun-loving, kindhearted and very competitive. This could be seen as he demonstrated his skills on the football field. "Smoke," as he was affectionately called, was a nickname that the offensive players gave him for his quickness like a "wisp of smoke."

Allen was a member of the Greater Hall Temple Church of God In Christ where he participated in the youth department, music ministry, and Sunday School, before relocating to Atlanta in 2006. While in Atlanta he was a student at Atlanta Technical College, pursuing a degree in auto collision repair. Allen departed this life on August 20, 2009.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Emmanuel Blash, Mary Evelyn Forrester and George Forrester.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving parents: Allen Lamar Sr. and Patricia Blash; one son, Adrian Omari Blash; one sister, Nakeya N. (Dont) Addison; one brother, Nicholas T. Blash; maternal grandparents, Chester Brown and Virginia Brown; his godmother, Eileen Barnett; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He will be missed greatly.

The family will receive friends from 2 p.m. to closing today at Brunswick Funeral Home.

The funeral service for Allen Lamar Blash Jr. will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 26, 2009, in the sanctuary of Greater Hall Temple Church of God in Christ with the Rev. Dr. G. Bobby Hall officiating.

Interment will follow in Greenwood Cemetery.

Vincent R. Drummer Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements for Allen Lamar Blash Jr.

CITE THIS RECORD

GenealogyBank.com

(<https://www.genealogybank.com/doc/obituaries/obit/15DFA97000B35628-15DFA97000B35628> : accessed 29 August 2018)