RISLEY LIBRARIAN DIES IN HOSPITAL; RITES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Willie L. Buggs, Risley High School librarian, died Saturday at the Baptist Hospital in Miami, where she had been a patient for some three weeks.

A native of Camden County, Mrs. Boggs [sic] was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clement E. Atkinson. During her early childhood, the family moved to Brunswick.

Educated in the public school system of Glynn County, Morris Brown College and Atlanta University, Mrs. Buggs was the holder of an M.A. degree in library science, and had served as librarian at the high school since 1943.

At the time of her death, she was pursuing further studies at the University of Miami during the summer months.

Survivors are six brothers, four sisters, a daughter, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at First African Baptist Church on Amherst Street Wednesday at 4 p.m., with the Rev. W.G. Griffin, the Rev. E.C. Tillman, the Rev. J.C. Hope, and the Rev. F.T. Martin officiating.

The body will remain at the church from 2 p.m. until time for the service.
