

Woodrow Slay

The Brunswick News; Friday 26 February 1993; pg. 3A col. 1

WOODROW SLAY SR. FUNERAL SATURDAY

The funeral for Woodrow "Sunbuddy" Slay Sr., 70, of Brunswick will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in the chapel of Collins' Funeral Home with the Rev. Woodrow Slay Jr. officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery with full military honors.

He died Monday in a Jesup nursing home.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 7 tonight at the funeral home. They will be at 2107 M St.

Surviving are his wife, Johnnie G. Slay of Brunswick; his father, Charlie Jordan of Brunswick; four sons, Woodrow Slay Jr. and Michael Slay, both of Brunswick, Barry M. Slay of Atlanta and Kenneth L. Slay of Pigeon Forge, Tenn.; four daughters, Joyce Slay Green and Cathy Slay Clap, both of Brunswick, Karen Slay Waldon of Winder and Johnetta P. Slay of Atlanta; two sisters, Margaret Slay Smith of Orlando, Fla., and Cleo Slay Sullivan of Brunswick; two brothers, Johnny Lee Slay and Edward Slay, both of Savannah; 21 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and several other relatives.

The Bibb County native had lived in Brunswick most of his life. He was a veteran of World War II and was retired.