

Auria Spearing

The Brunswick News; Friday 11 December 1992; pg. 3A col. 6

SATURDAY FUNERAL FOR AURIA SPEARING

The funeral for Auria Mae Spearing, 24, of Atlanta will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Hall's Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery.

Miss Spearing died Dec. 8 at Emory University Hospital in Atlanta.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home tonight from 6 until 7.

Surviving are her parents, Carolyn Perry and James Garner of Atlanta; a daughter, Samia Spearing of Atlanta; two brothers, James Garner of Los Angeles, Calif., and Brian Garner of Brunswick; three sisters, Chastity Garner and Casey Garner both of Brunswick and Angelette Garner of Los Angeles; and many other relatives.

A Glynn County native, Miss Spearing had lived in Brunswick for most of her life. She was a 1987 graduate of Brunswick High School.

Miss Spearing was a clerk of the Internal Revenue Service in Atlanta. She was also a member of Johnson Temple First Born Church in Brunswick.