

George Aust

The Brunswick Advocate; 25 January 1838

DIED -- In this city, on the morning of the 22d inst. George Butler Aust, Esq. formerly of London, Eng., in the 38th year of his age.

"He is now beyond the reach of friendship, or of hatred; nor can his ashes be affected by censure, or by praise. May he rest in peace; and if charity and good nature open not the benevolent lip, let the finger of silence rest on the tongue of malevolence and detraction.
