

Samuel Myers

The Brunswick Advocate; 17 August 1837

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE-- We are truly sorry to learn, that on Monday the 7th inst. while Mr. S.L. Myers, of Satilla, in this county, was engaged in falling trees for the purpose of repairing his fence, which had been mostly blown down by the storm, the day previous, he unfortunately felled a tree on his little son, about three years of age, which crushed him to death in an instant. Mrs. Myers, the mother of the unfortunate little sufferer, was at the time seated on a log, but a few feet from the deceased, with her little infant at the breast. How truly may it be said, "that in the midst of life we are in death." A.
